

The Cholera:

DEATH OF JUDGE DEVERAUX—THE DISEASE AT FALO AND SANDUSKY.

BUFFALO, Aug. 4.

Judge Deveraux, of Niagara county, and the man in that section, died at the Falls, of cholera yesterday. He was 63 years of age.

The deaths in this city, for the last twenty-four only reach thirteen or fourteen, and the cholera appearing from the localities where it broke out.

Accounts from Sandusky say that the cholera

THE CHOLERA AT ROCHESTER.
ROCHESTER, August 4—7 P.
The Board of Health report that up to four
this afternoon, there had been nineteen cases of cholera and ten deaths.

The Missouri Election.
St. Louis, Aug. 4.
Returns are incomplete, but there is no doubt that the whole democratic ticket in this county is elected except the Sheriff and Member of Congress.
The results for the other offices are still doubtful, and nothing positive can be said.

The returns from the 56th district were favorable to Miller (whig) and Green (democrat) was elected over James Winston, whig, by a small majority.

The election in this State yesterday, from propreances has resulted in the re-election to Governor from the Second district of Barnabard H. Henshaw, but in the First district the result is a humbug, but is expected to be in favor of Clark, also democratic.

Whig Convention in Maine.
 PORTLAND, August 4, 1868.
 The Whig Convention at Biddeford was very attended. N. D. Appleton was nominated for Governor and John B. Brown of Portland, for elector.

The Free Soil Convention.
 BUFFALO, August 4, 1868.

There is to be no free soil convention in Cleveland meeting to appoint delegates to the Pittsburg Court is to be held there on the 7th inst.

Destructive Fire in Savannah.
SIXTY OR SEVENTY HOUSES BURNED—HUNDRED PEOPLE RENDERED HOMELESS, ETC.

SAVANNAH August 31.

A destructive fire occurred this afternoon, by from sixty to seventy houses were burned. Hundred persons were without homes in the western part of city, known as South Oglethorpe. All the houses of wood, and substantially. The loss is estimated

A great quantity of furniture was destroyed. The fire burned from Hubly street north to Marlborough and from Laurel east to Canal. Among the persons killed were, Captain Nicholas King, Thomas Taylor, John Star, Patrick Purkis, Charles Packet, John Mudgett, Henry Thompson, Mrs. Rivers. The wind was high and water scarce. The fire is still raging, but its progress is checked. Great distress will be experienced for the want of houses.

Fire at Boston—Three Lives Lost.

The dwelling house No. 29 Fulton street took fire at 10 o'clock last night, and three children of Daniel Rose, who lived there, were suffocated to death. Their ages were 10 years, three years, and eight months.

Fire in Fulton, Ohio.—The Crops.
CINCINNATI, August 4, 1880.
A fire in Fulton, this morning, destroyed Burton's saw mill a large quantity of lumber, and the dwelling houses. The loss is $50,000, on which was very little insurance.

The weather continues very dry. The corn crop

Revolting Case of Infanticide.
A most horrible case of infanticide occurred in Spring Garden District yesterday. A young girl, about sixteen years of age, named Mary Craft, a domestic in the employ of Albert Shuster, keeper of a public house on Spring Garden, Ninth street, was found to be endeavoring to smother her young child in a closet. Whilst up stairs she delivered herself of an infant, which she was about to smother.

she dismembered, and nearly severed its head from the body with a penknife. She confessed the deed, and she did it to hide her shame. The body of the child was found in a clothes basket among some soiled garments. The father of the child is known, and is quite a young man.

Mr. Sands Alive. SYRACUSE, Aug. 4. 1888. The report going the rounds, that the papers that Sands felt and broke his neck, is not true. He performed this action at Oswego.

Extensive Robbery at Buffalo.

BUFAALO, August 4, 1881.
A gentleman, named Bull, from the West, on his home, was knocked down in the thoroughfare of the dock, dragged into a yard, where he was robbed. It is said $17,000. The robbers have not yet been caught.

The Steamship Union at Charleston.
CHARTER, August 3, 1881.
The U. S. mail steamship Union, Capt. R. Adams, arrived at Charleston, in fifty hours, from New York.

The U. S. Steamer Mississippi Spoken.
BOSTON, August 4, 1881.

The steamer Maid of Erin spoke, at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, off Grand Manan, steamship Mississippi, bound east.

The Steamer Swan Destroyed by Fire
Toledo, August 4, 1891.
The steamer Swan, running to Detroit, took fire at deck, last night, and was destroyed. No lives were lost.

The Extradition Case.
SUPERIOR COURT.
Before Judge Oakley.

August 4.—In the absence of Judge Rosworth, Justice Oakley presided yesterday morning in the matter of the prisoner Kane, brought up on a habes corpus return. After five days' continuance to adjournment, Mr. Brady, counsel for the prisoner, requested that the decision of Judge Wilson had not been received, but that he understood that the judge's decision had been furnished, and was on his way to the city, as the Marshal had been advised by telegraph to that effect. The Judge, under the circumstances, adjourned the case until Tuesday of next week.

Assault on a Police Captain—About 10 o'clock on the night an affray took place at the Gen. Smith's Broadway residence between Capt. Garrett of the 5th ward police, and Capt. Rynders of the Hydrant Co. in which Capt. Rynders made a personal assault on Capt. Garrett. The difficulty, it is said, originated out of some political feeling existing between the parties. Mr. Garrett yesterday made a complaint before Justice Bogart respecting the assault, and magistrate held Mr. Rynders to bail in the sum of $100 to answer the charge.

Theatrical and Musical.—The musical comedy "The

BOWERY THEATRE.—His voice's majestic sound,
The great Wizard of the World's a noted and nightly crowded assemblage. His performance needs no chemical, alchemical, scientific and philosophical elements, both amusing and instructive, and should be needed by every one.

BROADWAY THEATRE.—Anderson, the celebrated W of the North, is to appear again this evening at the Metropolitan theatre. His necromantic feats are th light and astonishment of well filled houses. He introduce the "Inexhaustible bottle" to-night.

NIBLO'S GARDEN.—Burton, together with his pro
stock company, are to appear to night in the exte

PERSONAL THEATRE.—The bill of entertainment promised to be given at this establishment to-night, prizes the farce of the "Yankee Footman," "Fool Equilibrium" by Prof. Honey and Son, and the farce drama, entitled "Kenneth."

CASTLE GARDEN.—The Fimch comic vaudeville party appear this evening, in the amusing pieces "the Maitre de Chapelle," and the four sisters Koss the grand mystic ballet, called "Sathaniel, or Triumph of the Cross."

AMERICAN MUSICAL.—White and black artists are announced again for this afternoon and evening. Their performances are always received with marked approval.

FESTAL.

CHRISTY'S OPERA HOUSE.—Christy's popular company of negro delineators offer a very attractive program for this evening.

WOOD'S MINSTRELS are to give another of their pleasing and varied entertainments this evening, comprising one of their best features.

ERECLYN MINSTREL.—The citizens of Brooklyn are invited to see the minstrel company known as the minstrel, dogs and goats.

THE SINGERS.—The popular vocalist, intends giving grand vocal and instrumental concert at West Point Monday evening next. From thence she will proceed Albany.